Hear - ed as she - gainst the eastern sky
Hear, as she speaks with wis-dom smart,

Our Al - ma Ma - ter stands on high to us who will to do our part with out - stretched hands she beck - ons all who need her eall. "Let me oh let me teach you truth and freedom fall!"

Hail Dear Ligon Our Alma Mater!

We Thy Sons and daughters heed Thee

FOREWORD

The Ligon count-down represents ten successful years of preparing students for their places in orbital flight. We count it a great privilege to be a part of this operational count-down and to tell in words and pictures some of the activities that give an inside glimpse of our Alma Mater. Here in the introductory pages we pay special tribute to our 1962 National Merit Scholar, Marilyn Virginia Yarbrough whose capsule landed safely on her target of academic excellence. May our count-down continue.

MERIT SCHOLAR

The National Merit Scholarship Program is so named because it is a nationwide search for talent — a system of service for those institutions seeking qualified scholarship candidates. Ligon is especially proud to have produced such a candidate. The program is a means of encouraging youth to perform up to the maximum of their ability. Thus, the Merit Scholar recognition is given to those students who so distinguished themselves.

SENIOR CLASS

In 1960, a group of eager young souls entered preparatory rocket "John W. Ligon," to begin the initial part of their journey to "Planet Success." To the giggling, frisky, young beings known as "Freshmen," (because they had begun their training on "Planet IX"), the giant shrine of learning sprawled and gleaming in the sun, represented a new world of adventure, new faces and new experiences. At the master controls were: Mr. S. R. Cloud, Mrs. M. R. Cook, Mrs. A. M. Levingston, Mr. J. C. Levingston, Miss M. E. Ligon, Mrs. I. E. Washington and Mr. P. H. Williams. On this planet, the following members of our group gave their fresh, young musical talents to the: STRING ORCHESTRA: Laura Hinton, Antionette Sanders and Geraldine Battle; to the ADVANCED CHORUS: Nina Barbour, Earl Ebron, Walter Farrell, Laura Hinton, Delcie Johnson, Norma Keck, Nellie Leonard and Billie Tucker. While to the gridiron we gave: James Dickens and Ronald Reid. To the Basketball court: Joe Winters; to the TENNIS COURT: James Cofield, Juan Cofield, Jimmy Penny, and Christopher Hunt.

Having completed training on "Planet IX," the new groups of individuals, now called "Sophomores," headed for "Planet X." Master controllers were: Mrs. M. W. Blakely, Miss M. C. Bullock, Mrs. E. L. Clark, Mr. H. Cunningham, Mr. M. C. Hill, the late Mrs. M. B. Jones and Mrs. E. H. Perry.

Matured somewhat, to the point of having other interest besides "giggling Sessions," the class settled down and endeavored to do some serious studying and displaying their talents in other ways. Mozelle Dolby, Laura Hinton, Valjean Myers and Geraldine Battle participated in the String Orchestra. The following students served as members of the concert and marching band: Bertha Baker (secretary), Pearline Debnam, Christopher Hunt, Robert McDowell, Ronald Reid, Douglas Goodson, Gwendolyn Maryland, William Malone, Robert Brown, Ronald Snipes, Henry Worth and Eugene Snipes.

During our stay on this planet Bertha Baker, Christopher Hunt, Nelson Peebles, Billie Tucker and Patricia Williamson were inducted in the Mu Alpha Theta, the National Mathematics Society.

Endeavoring to keep us well versed in the arts, James Cofield, Juan Cofield, Niki Neal, Willie Nixon and Cecil Sanders participated in the Art Club and Martha Davis, Carolyn Hicks, Geraldine Holloway, Barbara Mann, Barbara McCoy, Niki Neal, Patricia Robinson and Billie Tucker prepared for careers in homemaking.

"Planet XI" now loomed ahead. Assured of a safe landing by master controllers Blakely, Bugg, Burke, Lipscomb and Perry, the "Juniors," now more mature, knew that the real test of endurance was yet to come.

Getting off to a flying start, the following were inducted into the National Honor Society: James Cofield, Juan Cofield, Robbie Debnam, Christopher Hunt, Delcie Johnson, William Judkins, Barbara McCoy, Valjean Myers, Nelson Peebles, Jimmy Penny, Wilton Smith, Billie Tucker, Mary Upperman and Robert Williams, while Robbie Debnam, Barbara McCoy, Wilton Smith, Mary Upperman and Inez Yarborough were inducted in the Mu Alpha Theta Honor Society.

On this planet Annie L. McKay reigned as Miss Ligon High. Assisting in the production of the Echo, our yearbook, were Rose Marie Ellis, Charles Davis, Clarence Hayes, William Malone, Rufus Wilson, and Joseph Winters, who served as associate editors. Endeavoring to keep Ligon well informed were: Jimmie Penny, Rose Ellis, Patricia Williamson, and Gloria Walker, serving as reporters for the Tattler, the school newspaper.

Keeping in step with the school spirit were majorettes: Sandra Cooke (captain), Billie Tucker (co-captain), Juanita Dunn, Betty Harris and Niki Neal.

Memorable performances were given by the following drama guild stars: Joseph Winters, Clarence Hayes, William Manuel, Walter Farrell, Valjean Myers, and Vernice Holt.

History

Desiring to aid in the correlation of library materials with subject matter, the following participated in the library club under the directions of their advisors, Mrs. E. H. Brown, and Mr. C. C. Lipscomb were Barbara McCoy (vice-president), Dolena Allen, Mary Barbour, Geraldine Battle, Pearline Debnam, Joseph Guess, Annie McKay and Valjean Myers.

Lending their dynamic talents to the field of sports were: FOOTBALL: Eugene Snipes, Frederick Johnson, Linwood Earl Ebron, Ronald Reid, Robert Williams, Melvin Glenn, Johnny Boykin, James Dickens, Christopher Hunt and Walter Taylor; BASKETBALL: Carlton Barber, Arthur Debnam, Lionel Curtis, James Cofield, Juan Cofield, Joseph Winters, Robert McDowell and Eugene Snipes; TRACK: Ronald Reid and Christopher Hunt; TENNIS: Christopher Hunt, Joseph Winters, Jimmie Penny, Jesse McKay, James Cofield, Juan Cofield and Clarence Hayes.

The main social event of the year was the annual Junior-Senior Prom. The guests were feted to an enjoyable evening amid "Moonlight and Roses." Surely we shall always cherish memories of that night.

At last we have safely landed on "Planet XII" under the expert guidance of: Mrs. R. B. Williams, Mrs. G. Harris, Mr. J. E. Burke, Mrs. E. D. Toole and Mr. H. A. Poole.

At last we are here! This is the foremost stage of our preparatory flight to success. The young, giddy, immature Freshmen have been molded, shaped and re-shaped into mature, secure young individuals.

Desiring to broaden our knowledge even more, Bertha Baker, Carlton Barber, Mary Barbour, Gwendolyn Chavis, James Cofield, Juan Cofield, Robbie Debnam, Rose Marie Ellis, Christopher Hunt, Delcie Johnson, William Judkins, Barbara McCoy, Valjean Myers, Jimmie Penny, Nelson Peebles, Wilton Smith, Billie Tucker, Mary Upperman, Robert Williams and Joseph Winters participated in the Scholars Program at Saint Augustine's College.

Here on planet XII we eagerly anticipated the selection of the senior superlatives, which were: MOST ATHLETIC: James Dickens and Joyce Elliott, BEST DRESSED: Cecil Sanders and Patricia Robinson, MOST POPULAR: Charles Davis and Valjean Myers, MOST LIKELY TO SUCCEED: Wilton Smith and Barbara McCoy, MOST ATTRACTIVE: Nelson Peebles and Niki Neal, MOST COOPERATIVE: William Manuel and Mary Upperman, MOST MUSICAL: Robert Brown and Valjean Myers, MOST BUSINESS LIKE: William Manuel and Doris Thomas, MOST PLEASING PERSONALITY: John Sanders and Carolyn Spencer, MOST VERSATILE: Melvin Glenn and Valjean Myers, MOST STUDIOUS: Wilton Smith and Barbara McCoy.

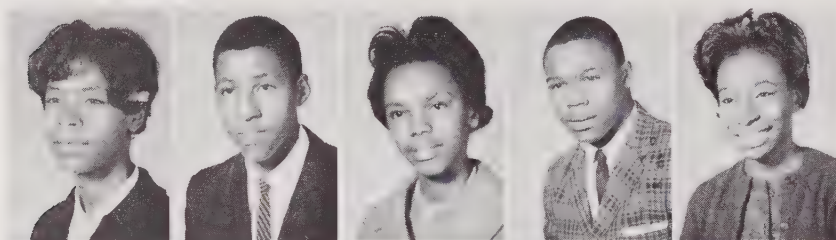

As we entered this institution to learn—we shall depart to apply our knowledge. We may oft times forget what was said here, but we shall always remember what we did here. This year has been full of exciting days and events. We recall only a few of those dear to our hearts: The annual presentation of "Messiah" by the Advanced Chorus. The Fine Arts Festival, The Presentation of excerpts from three Shakespearean plays, The opera "School for Lovers," The N. C. High School Drama Festival Finals in which the Ligon Drama Guild presented Saroyan's "Hello Out There" which won for the school the honor of Best Play presented in the AAA Category and a Character award to Valjean Myers, the senior class's presentation of three one-act plays, Youth Day and the Junior-Senior Prom.

To the crewmen of this great "preparatory rocket" go our thanks. Each of you has a part in our development.

With our stay on "Planet XII" completed we shall be off again to our destination "Planet Success." There we shall take our rightful place as starlets in the "Galaxy of Life."

CONCERT AND MARCHING BAND

The Ligon Band is a direct outgrowth of the Raleigh City School instrumental music program. It is the pot of gold at the end of the rainbow for the grade school musicians. Its primary function is one of dedicated service to the school and community. In its highly academic surroundings it unites the mind with the spirit; that of the tiring athlete, the child along the parade route awaiting Santa and the lover of concert music. The repertoire contains selections from the seventeenth century Baroque era to the present-day Broadway musical. Special attention is given to those members who exhibit talent and who wish to major in music.

LIBRARY ASSISTANTS

Ligon's library assistants are an integral part of the total school-library program. In addition to extending services, these assistants find the work challenging.

From such experiences, the opportunity to broaden their personal experience is provided through: becoming more adapt in the use of books and libraries; promoting cooperative attitudes between the librarian and students; and providing opportunities for developing and using special abilities and skills. This group performs an invaluable service to the school as well as to themselves. They perform such duties as circulation services; shelving services; room services; reserve-materials services; book processing services and general clerical services.

Every service performed by the assistants is regarded with importance and necessity in the operation of the Ligon Library.

LIBRARY CLUB

The Library Club is an integral part of the total school-library program. It is an organization designed to correlate materials of the library with the subject matter of all classes. The members, in addition to the many services performed in the library such as, reviewing books of fiction and non-fiction, reviewing new books for prospective purchase, perform the invaluable service of suggesting books and related materials that will enrich various courses in the school curriculum. The opportunity to render such service broadens their personal experiences and develops their personal abilities and skills.

The organizing of a recent summer library program did much to further enhance the participation in the regular school club.

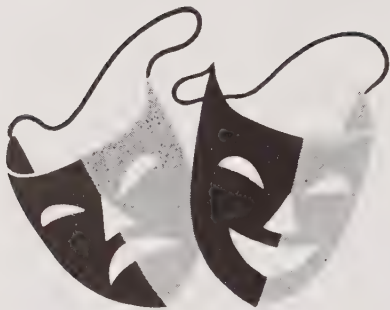

One of the outstanding activities this term was the presentation of a three-act drama entitled, SCHOOL FOR GIRLS. The club members participating were: Bessie White, Mary Barbour, Marie Coleman, Anita Noble, Anita Miller, Claudia Goodson, Frances Wilson, Shirley Dendy, Nancy Norwood, Carolyn Peterson, Patricia Palmer, and Brenda Farrell.

DRAMATICS

Players Clarence Hayes, Joseph Winters and Valjean Myers admire their certificate of merit for their top-notch performance in the Eastern District Drama Festival.

Drama, a composition in prose or verse portraying life or character by means of dialogue and action, gives the student unlimited opportunities for self expression and creativity. The Guild holds membership in the State Drama Association and is presently serving as Host School to the North Carolina High School Drama Festival. Its production of "Hello Out There" was enthusiastically received and won a Best Play Award and a Best Supporting Actress Award: The Cast included Valjean Myers, Douglas Goodson, Lionel Curtis, Charles Davis, Joseph Winters, Clarence Hayes, Donald Jones, Melvin Glenn—and William Manuel, sound effects.

SENIOR HOME ECKERS

MRS. A. M. LEVINGSTON, Advisor

Through building blocks a child has a chance for creative self-expression. Frances and Janice are encouraging the children in this play activity.

The food that a child eats from his first to his sixth year has a great deal to do with his well-being at the time and with his future development. Janet and Doris are assisting the children.

The Senior Home Eckers are busy offering their services to the community. Volunteer service is offered in getting pledges and contributions for the United Fund.

HOME ECONOMICS DEPARTMENT

Learning to Share the Christmas Spirit

Girls make many projects that can be shared with others during the Yuletide Season. Decorations for the tree, centerpieces, hangings, garlands, and wreaths are being made.

Gifts were discussed: how to choose them and simple ones that might be made. The points considered in the selection of gifts were:

- (1) Is the gift appropriate to the age, the interest, and the tastes of the person to whom it is given?
- (2) Has special thought been given to pleasing the receiver?
- (3) If the gift is to be made, is it within the ability of the giver to make it well?
- (4) Is the gift within a price range which the giver can afford?

The modern community is aware of what is at stake in the marriage and families of its young people. Through our course in Family Living we are being trained for dating, mate selection, marriage, homemaking and parenthood. On the panel are: Sandra Jones, Donald Dunn, Barbara Hinton, Douglas Goodson, Carolyn Lassiter, and Milton Matthews.

The total homemaking program aims to help all people in the community live better in the homes we have. One of the goals is to develop independence, leadership and self-confidence. Members in the picture are as follows: Carolyn Redfern, Barbara Hinton, Patricia Marshall, Delores Jenkins, Fannie Batchelor, Christine Burrell, Shirley Williams, Gloria Person, Annie McKay, Vernice Holt, and Patricia Williamson. Not shown are: Geraldine Battle and Betty Roberts.

FOOD PRESERVATION II

Many homemakers preserve foods. When it is plentiful and lowest in price, the preservation of food in your home is economical and will add variety to our meals. The principles of food freezing is also stressed.

Evaluation of products by the following: Frances Foster, Barbara Hartsfield, and Mrs. Toole.

NEW HOME ECKERS

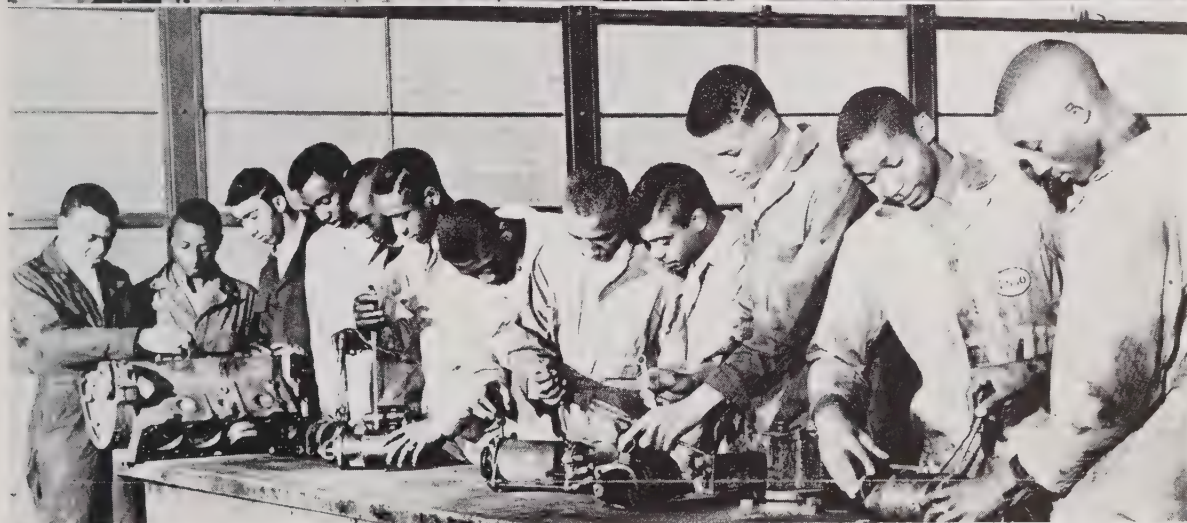

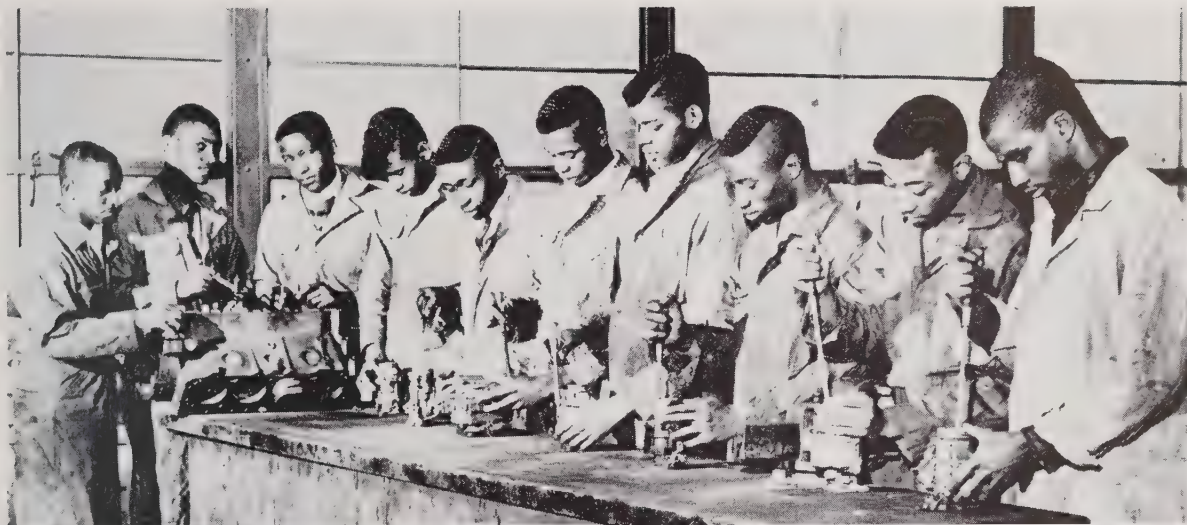

CLOTHING AREA III

Barbara Thorpe points out techniques in sewing and trimming for a child care garment. Mary Collins and Brenda Jordon look on.

CHILD CARE UNIT I

Toys are very important for a child's best growth and development. A few scraps, pictures and pieces of board may be all he needs to set his imagination going. Students shown are: Annie Scarborough, Patricia Griffin and Gwendolyn Maryland, second year students.

State Champions of 1962

1962 LITTLE BLUES

The Little Blues collected 12 hits against Caswell Training School of Yanceyville and coasted to a 20-1 victory to win their fourth State Championship in five years.

Bernard Wilder, the backbone of the Blues, gave up only one hit in winning his eighth straight victory of the season. He did not lose a game this year and lost only one over the two years of service at Ligon while winning fourteen. The little right hander with a sneaky fast ball struck out seven Caswell players to run his total to 83 and walked only two.

Ligon scored in every inning, featuring a six run second inning and seven run fifth inning. The game was finally called in the sixth inning on the agreement of both coaches.

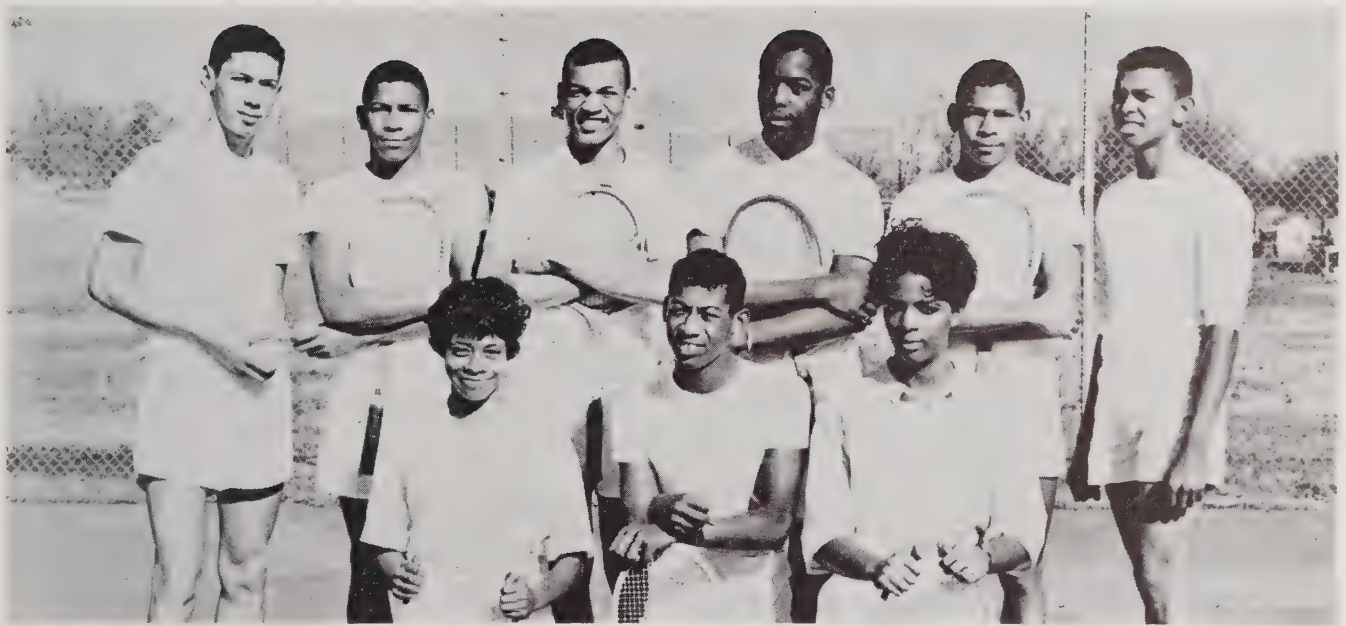

Wildness on the part of Caswell pitchers, Charles Long and Mac Williamson, along with six miscues gave Ligon several unearned runs. It took two hours and twenty minutes to play six innings.

The Blues' attack was led by James Hines with a double and single. He also played great defensive ball in centerfield. Wilder also chipped in with two hits to help his own cause. Co-captains Robert Height and James got two singles to round out the Blues, mustering more than one hit.

The Caswell Bulls who brought an undefeated record to Raleigh scored in the fifth inning on a walk, a single by Thomas Bowe and a Ligon error. After that Wilder shut the door on the next six men facing him until the game was called to save Caswell further embarrassment.

The 1963 team at press time seems to be well on the way to another championship. The Blues have played the following teams: Smithfield, Garner, Goldsboro, Rocky Mount, Apex, Wake Forest losing only one game to Rocky Mount.

1963 State Champions

Coached by George Jones

The Little Blues won their first State Tennis Championship in Winston-Salem. The team title is decided by the number of victories its players received. The Blues walked away with a total of nine trophies.

Willie White and Douglas Goodson led the Blues by taking the doubles crown. They defeated Scott Howard and Samuel Whitley from Washington's P. S. Jones 7-5, 6-4, 6-4. White was also runner-up in the boy's singles. He lost to Scott Howard for the second time this year in a finals match 6-2, 6-1.

Gilda Adcock, Ligon's defending state champion, failed to retain her crown and had to settle for runner-up honors in the girl's singles. She was defeated by Marvis Archie from Winston-Salem's Paisley High 6-2, default.

Adcock teamed with Doris Morgan to move to the finals in the girl's doubles, only to default to Archie and D. Thomas.

Other team participants were James and Juan Cofield, Jesse McKay and C. J. Hayes. The team is now eligible to participate in the National tournament scheduled later this year.

CHEERLEADERS

The Principal's Message

Dear Students:

Out of our deep desire to provide for you, that which is truly fundamental in your education, we submit three thoughts expressed recently by Mrs. Henry Carr, President of the Missouri Congress of Parents and Teachers. We hope that in some way, that we too have taught you:

1. The meaning of big words—words worn so smooth by their use that they might have lost their significance—words as big as integrity, honesty, reliability, hope.
2. That ideas and principles are more important than things, that to understand the condition of the world is more than wall to wall carpeting, and to appreciate the 14th Amendment is more important than “beauty-rest” mattresses.
3. The importance of working when people are looking and when no one is looking—the value of doing a good job whether it is washing dishes, plowing a field, removing an appendix, or simply doing one's home work.

If you have learned these truths as you studied your lessons, then we feel that you are now ready to live and grow and vote in a free society.

Sincerely,

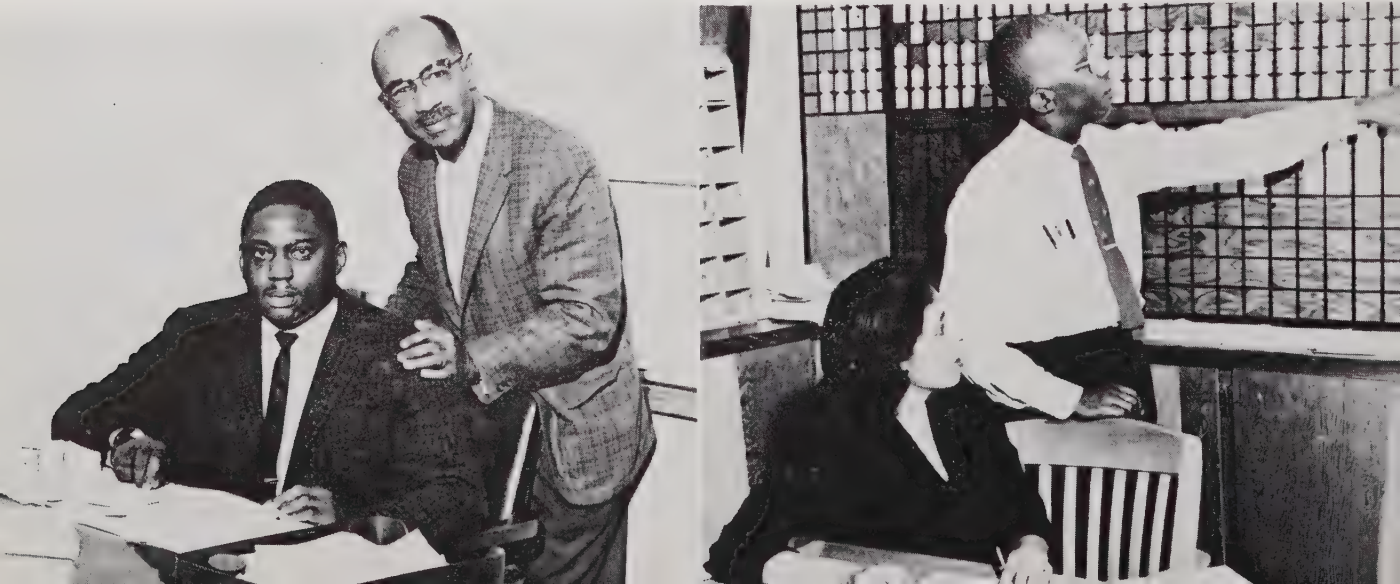

H. E. Brown
Principal
